

TM ACTS IN DUMP SCANDAL? ? ?

A rumor, in Wilmington, during the past weekend that Town Manager Cecil Lancaster has appointed Paul Godzyk of Parker Street to be Chairman of a 'Dump Committee' has been confirmed by Mr. Godzyk.

Mr. Godzyk denied part of the rumor, which stated that he was to act in behalf of Mr. De Felice.

'My job' he said 'is to survey the town to find suitable places for the location of a modern type dump'.

WATER DEPARTMENT CALLS FOR CROSS COUNTRY SURVEY

The Board of Water Commissioners, last Thursday, called for a survey of the territory between the new Chestnut St pumping station site and Eames Street, at Main Street, in order that they may get an estimate of costs for laying a water main directly between the two points.

The action of the Commissioners followed the second public hearing on laying a water main on Butters Row.

Nine of the eleven families who were present at the hearing voted against having a watermain laid on Butters Row, even on more favorable terms than had been presented at the first hearing.

A total of 20 landowners are involved, of which nine were not represented.

The new proposals of the Water Commissioners were that the cost would not be over $3 per linear foot of land abutting the highway, to the landowners. The cost of bridging the Boston & Maine RR right of way would be borne by the town. The land-owners were told, and in addition part of the cost for an eight inch main would also be borne by the town.

In informal meetings prior to the hearing landowners had been told that the cost for an eight inch main would be $3.22 a linear foot of frontage.

One of the land-owners, at one of the meetings had said, according to the Commissioners

REV JOHN H SARGENT TO CONDUCT CONGREGATIONAL SERVICES SUNDAY

The Rev. John H Sargent of Lowell is to conduct the services in the Congregational Church Sunday, in the absence of the Minister, Rev. Robert Sanders, who has flown to California because of the death of his father.

A tea, which was to be held by Mrs Sanders for some of the ladies of the parish, on Saturday, has been cancelled.

$350 VOTED TO PLANT MEMORIAL TREE TO BARROWS

The Board of Selectmen, Monday night, voted to request a transfer of $350, to plant a permanent Christmas tree on the Common, in memory of the late Herbert C Barrows.

The tree will be donated by Mrs Barrows, and will be transferred to the Common under the direction of Tree Warden Billy Babine. Approval by the Finance Committee is expected.

BOOKMOBILE

The Bookmobile will call at the Wilmington Housing Authority Monday, October 30, at 1:45 p.m. and at Hathaway Acres at 2:45.

PART OF COMBINED CHOIRS WHICH SING SUNDAY

The combined choirs of the Baptist, Congregational and Methodist Churches, numbering over 40 persons, are to sing in the Baptist Church Sunday at 7 pm, in Reformation Day Services.

Sopranos and basses are shown. The combined choirs are to be directed by the Rev. Fred Hess of the Methodist Church.

85% OF PARENTS WANT FALLOUT DISCUSSION

24 FALLOUT SHELTERS BUILT

85% of the parents of Wilmington School children want to attend a proposed meeting to discuss the problems of 'fallout', according to a survey just completed by the Wilmington Public Schools.

According to a tabulation just completed by Athletic Director Larry Cushing, 24 parents reported that they have fallout shelters in their homes. Mr. Cushing concedes that there may have been a duplication or two in this, as the same questionnaire was sent home with all school children. He did try to eliminate duplication.

Only Glen Road school parents answered that there were no fallout shelters. In all other schools there were 'Yes' answers from 1 or more parent, with the Boutwell School parents reporting four, the Wildwood 3, the Whitefield 2 and the High School 10.

In answer to a question 'Do You Plan to Build One?' there were 1200 answered Yes, to 854 answers of No.

76% of the parents favored holding the child in school if there were a 'fallout alarm' rather than sending him home.

70% of the parents want the town to consider the building of fallout shelters.

Opinions

Two percent of the returns added comments that Mr. Cushing included in his report to the school department. The reports included such statements as: (1) There is need for more information; (2) There is complete confidence in the Civil Defense Authorities, and will abide by their plans; (3) Concern over transportation, such as car pools, taxi and bus, and (4) A few expressed a give up attitude, apathy on the part of Americans - it should have been planned before - are we trying to start a panic, - and wait until we can get Federal Aid.

Under a fifth paragraph of comments Mr. Cushing reported suggestions:

(a) The schools, town government or federal government should conduct surveys to see how we can best convert our present facilities into adequate shelters.

(b) To protect cellar windows in the schools with steel shutters or cement bags filled with sand, and to install necessary supplies.

(c) Some foreign countries such as Sweden have constructed and used public shelters for several years. These shelters are also used for recreational areas, garages, etc.

NORTH ANDOVER HERE SATURDAY

TWO TOP TEAMS IN LEAGUE

The North Andover Scarlet Knights, with four wins, no losses and no ties in the Lowell Suburban League, will meet the Wilmington Wildcats, at the Wilmington Athletic Field, Saturday, in what should be the game of the year.

Wilmington has had three wins and one tie, and is in second place, to No. Andover's first. The star player of the Scarlet Knights is Gus Moynihan, who has scored 34 points so far this season.

WINNER OF 5 STATE & REGIONAL AWARDS

CECIL'S VERSION

This column, last week, reported that our Town Manager said "Thank God" at the resignation of Bill Beers and Danny Gillis from the Wilmington Planning Board.

We wouldn't have said this had we not been certain, and our information came from a person of the highest reputation.

But Cecil says it is wrong, and it is only fair to let him be quoted.

Instead of being thankful that the two men had left, Cecil says, he attempted to get them to stay on the Planning Board. He was conscious of all the work that they had done for the town and realized their value.

And, he says, if he used the phrase "Thank God" it was as a part of a larger phrase, such as "Thank God we have had men like that on our Planning Board".

THE "NEW FRONTIER AT HOME" IS SADLY TARNISHED

The "New Frontier at home" which our Board of Selectmen called for in their 1960 report to the town (Page 3, Town Report) is now sadly tarnished.

Above the signature of Nicholas De Felice appeared a paragraph which said: "To reduce a national need to more modest and familiar proportions, it must not be "What the Town Can Do for Us" but rather, what we, as individuals, can do for the community at large".

The Dump Scandal has provided the answer. It has become our "New Frontier at home".

It is unfortunate for the three honest members of the Board of Selectmen that they have been misled into a position where it is felt that the Selectmen must always present a United Front to the voters of Wilmington.

Gone are the days when Francis J. Hagerty would stand up in Open Meeting and pound the table (with others sometimes joining him). He may have been right, or he might have been wrong, but he wasn't wrong in open discussion in Selectmen's meetings.

And this is particularly ironic in view of the campaign that Mr Kidder ran, when he first was a candidate for the Board of Selectmen.

Mr Kidder visited 800 homes, according to his account, and told the people that there was too much secrecy on the part of the Board of Selectmen, and that if he were elected he would not have any part in Executive Meetings.

When he was Chairman of the Board, a few years later, his term of office was practically synonymous with Executive Meetings.

Mr Kidder, of course, has been persona non grata to the thinking people of Wilmington ever

THE EDUCATION OF MISS NICHELMORE

I wrote a letter to my friend,
And on the way I lost it;
A little native picked it up,
And goodness! he was caustic!

since Sept. 19, 1960, when he deliberately lied to the voters, in Town Meeting, by distorting and transposing a report of the Auditor of the Commonwealth.

It is time that our Board of Selectmen dropped the idea of a "United Front", and of helping each other get re-elected. Let our Selectmen stand on their own feet. Let us have the discussions in the open. A little disagreement never hurts the town, if it is open and honest.

It is time too, that our honest Selectmen
call for the resignation of Mr Kidder and Mr De Felice. The services of these two individuals are no longer needed by the town.

Cross country route

In calling for costs for the cross country route the Commissioners did not definitely abandon the idea of a water main on Butters Row, but were asking for comparative figures. At least one twelve inch main must be laid, to connect the Chestnut Street station to the present water system, and recommendations of Whitman & Howard, Consulting Engineers, is that the town eventually have two 12 inch mains leading to the rest of the system from Chestnut Street.

The second main, Whitman & Howard say, would be possibly needed in an emergency.

If only a Butters Row main is laid, there will still be some 2000 feet of main to lay along Main Street, and the Boston & Maine RR right of way will have to be crossed a second time, at the Town Farm bridge.

The cross-country main will not have to cross the B&M RR right of way.

ONLY THREE STICKER VIOLATIONS

Wilmington motorists have been 'on the job' was the comment of Chief Paul Lynch, of the Police Department. Only three motorists failed to get the Inspection Stickers by October 15th.

HEALTH BOARD MILK TESTS SCORES SOME DAIRIES

Tests of milk supplied by 13 dairies have found some of them to be 'not too good' Public Health Officer Patrick Thibau reported to the Board of Health Monday night.

One particular dairy had milk in a store in which one sample showed a 1500 count, and the next a 12,000 count. He didn't specify whether or not the store or the dairy was at fault, but said that the two samples were offered for sale 'side by side'.

He called the 12,000 count 'bad'.

Thibau found fault with some Lowell Dairies, and said that he has notified the Lowell City Health Department of his findings.

LONG DISCUSSION OVER LANG ST WATER COSTS

In 1953 Malcolm Budd of Bancroft St and another person paid $532.17 to the Water Department to install water on Bancroft and Lang Streets, under the belief that the street was a private way, according to testimony given by Budd at the Selectmen's meeting Monday night. Budd, who appeared with Delbert Hunter, told the Selectmen that the Water Superintendent had told him that no other person could use the main without sharing in the costs.

Budd added that in a later conversation, on the telephone in 1957, Sargent had said the same thing to Mrs. Budd.

Now another person wants to use the main, and Budd has learned that the street was an accepted one, at the time the water was installed, so that he cannot recover part of his money.

The conversation was lengthy, Monday night. Mr Sargent, the Water Superintendent, was unable to recall his part in the previous conversations.

Budd was told that the Selectmen were powerless to do anything for him, and that he should see the Water Commissioners, Thursday night.

TOWN MANAGER SAYS THIBEAU HAS RESIGNED

A lengthy letter from the Board of Health, read Monday night by the Selectmen, drew only a few words of comment by Chairman Brooks that 'Mr Thibau has submitted his resignation and intends to leave'.

The Town Manager said that Public Health Officer has 'told me verbally that he was going to leave, but has not given me any date.'

BOARD OF HEALTH PLANS INFLUENZA CLINIC

For Key Town Employees

The Board of Health has notified the Board of Selectmen that it plans to conduct a clinic to inoculate key employees of the town against Asian Influenza. The letter to the Selectmen told them that they were eligible.

The clinic will be conducted in conjunction with the Civil Defense Agency of Wilmington to prevent interruption of essential services.

The Board of Health has been advised by the State that there is a good possibility of an outbreak of Asian Influenza this winter.

NO READING SANITORIUM TO BE OFFERED FOR SALE

The State owned North Reading Sanatorium is to be offered for sale according to an article in Tuesday's Boston Globe.

The State Department of Public Health has decided it has no further reason for retaining the hospital, which has been in existence since 1908, and was used for the care and treatment of tubercular children.

There are a total of 15 buildings, including one and two family homes and institutional buildings.

The buildings are located on the 90.04 acres of land in No. Reading, but part of the property includes 25.07 acres in Wilmington.

The sale will be offered next year, after approval by the State legislature on the proposed method of sale.

The Benjamin Buck House, located between Woburn and Wildwood Streets is without a doubt the oldest house standing in Wilmington. Part of the structure dates back to 1672 and all of the present building antedates the Revolutionary War.

The house was built about 1672, or perhaps in 1671 by Ephraim (the first Ephraim) Buck, perhaps aided by his father, Roger.

Ephraim was the grandson of William Buck, a plowman who emigrated to Cambridge in 1635 together with his son Roger, then 18 years old. Roger became the "Public Executioner" of Cambridge, and there is a record dated 1688 in which he was ordered to inflict 20 lashes upon a convicted man.

William Buck died in 1658 and presumably was still a resident of Cambridge. His son Roger died in 1693, perhaps in the old Buck homestead.

Ephraim, who built the house, married on Jan 1, 1671, the granddaughter of Woburn's first settler, Sarah Brooks, and in 1672 he was taxed for the Meeting House Rate (Church pew rent) which meant he was a resident of Woburn. The house, at that time, was in Woburn.

The old road that goes by the house, now called Woburn Street was laid out in 1672, as the "Andover Road" (from Woburn, and was the principal highway between Boston and Andover.)

For 250 years every war in which Massachusetts was involved, either as a colony or later as a part of the United States, saw men from Wilmington with the name of Buck, serving honorably in the armed forces.

It was not until World War II that Wilmington had no Buck in uniform, all the men of the family being either too old or too young.

The last Wilmington Buck to wear the uniform of the United States was lost at sea about 10 years ago, - Ensign William Buck, US Navy, and it is entirely possible that he will have been the last Buck from Wilmington to wear his country's uniform.

The third Ephraim Buck and his brother Nathan were those who discovered the last bear shot in Wilmington, in August 1760. The bear was killed near the Wildwood Street bridge by old Ephraim, their father, second of the Bucks to bear the name. The killing of a bear is not important, except that in this case it has had a place in Wilmington's traditions, and the Queen Ann's Arme, with which the bear was killed is still in existence.

The first Ephraim was a Constable of Woburn. His grandson Nathan was a Constable of Wilmington in the days preceding the Revolution, and was probably the first Wilmington resident to openly defy the King when he paid the town's taxes not to His Majesty's treasurer but to the Treasurer of Massachusetts Bay Colony, in 1774.

One of the sons of the first Ephraim was Ebenezer, born in the old Buck House in 1698.

He married Lydia Eames, who lived across the street, and their son, Jonathan, became a Colonel in the Massachusetts forces in the Revolution.

It was Jonathan (who lived in Wilmington but four years) who settled what is now Bucksport, Maine, and it was descendants of Jonathan, who moved to Pennsylvania, and to South Carolina, who gave the names of Bucks County (Penna) and of Bucksville, to the So. Carolina town.

There are no known records of the service by South Carolina Bucks during the Civil War but it is entirely possible that there were Bucks in Grey, as there were Bucks in Blue.

All of the men in the Buck family were extremely long-lived. The great-grandson of the original Buck, Benjamin Buck, lived for 87 years and 6 months in the same house, dying on April 5, 1885.

It was he who gave the parsonage to the Congregational Church, and who later paid for the rebuilding of the steeple after the 1786 hurricane.

In the house at the present time is a wall on which newspaper was pasted by Benjamin in 1851, still preserved by the present owner, but hardly legible.

The first Ephraim described the farm as being 140 acres in extent. Today only the house lot remains.

The last Buck to live in the house was Johnathan H (Henry who inherited it on the death of his uncle Benjamin in 1885. Henry Buck died about 1925 and the estate was sold out of the Buck family.

CHELMSFORD TIES WILMINGTON 18 - 18

Four minutes before the end of a game that looked like an easy victory for Wilmington the Chelmsford Lions came to life and lateraled two touchdowns, in quick succession, to tie the game, 18 to 18. Chelmsford's Co-Capt Fred Lytle, with Backs Art House and Howie Weild had the fine art of lateral-passing down to a science. If the game had lasted a few more minutes, at the rate they were going, it would have been a Chelmsford victory.

BOARD OF APPEALS PUBLIC HEARING 52-61

A public hearing will be held in the Town Hall at 8:30 pm Nov. 14, 1961, on the appeal of A. P. Rounds and the Rounds Realty Co., 230 Main St. Stoneham, for a variance to remove gravel, surplus material, in the way of two streets to be constructed, in Hathaway Acres, North Wilmington.

Louis E. Gage, Chmn.,

Wilmington opened the game last Saturday, on its own field with the promise of an easy victory.

In the first half Wilmington made eight first downs, and put the ball over the line twice, to lead 12 to 0.

The first touchdown was made after a march of 64 yards, when QB Dickie Allard personally carried the ball across the line for the last two yards.

A try for the extra point by Proton's kick went wide.

Wilmington again easily scored the second touchdown after a 53 yard march, with Jack Bowen trotting around left end for the touchdown.

Fields received a pass in the end zone, in the try for the extra point, but it was nullified by a penalty, and at the half the score was 12-0 for Wilmington.

But the Lions came out for the second half a much different team. They took the kickoff, beautifully placed by Proton, and marched 80 yards up the field.

It was House who carried the ball most of the time, and Co-Capt. Eddie Woods of the Wildcats found that he had a line he wasn't able to get through, to perform his old spoiling play.

After the first touchdown in the second half, by House, the Wildcats again began to dominate the field. A fumble by a Wilmington carrier was recovered by a Chelmsford end, and then again fumbled, to let Eddie Woods grab the ball, all in a fraction of a second, and Wilmington went on to make its third touchdown, with perdicaro bringing all the fans to their feet, with an intercepted pass that he carried over 50 yards for a touchdown.

The Lions took the ball on the kickoff, and began to display the form they had last year, with passing.

They got to the Wilmington four yard line, where the Wildcats held firm. With the Chelmsford team unable to make the goal line in four tries the ball passed to Wilmington.

On its fourth down Wilmington had one foot to go, after the four minute warning, and a Chelmsford player got through to block a kick by Fields.

Chelmsford took over, on the seven yard line. Weild, on the receiving end of a lateral, went around left end for the second touchdown by Chelmsford but the conversion failed.

In the last minute of play Wilmington had two penalties and then chose to kick, with about 30 seconds remaining in the game.

Again the Lions backfield used their laterals to good advantage, with Weild, the third receiver, racing up the sideline for the tying goal.

The game ended a few seconds later, after Weild had intercepted a pass by Allard, and was again going up the sidelines, trying for his third touchdown.
